Qualifications

Please describe your relevant analytical skills.

Economics major/sociology minor; graduate studies secondary focus was statistics.

Before personal computers, while working in the Governor's Budget & Planning Office, determined how to increase federal funding to non-urban areas of Texas counties by several million dollars per year, by best combining unemployment data.

Analyzed various health & human services budgets for 3 Texas governors (2 Democrats, 1 Republican). Streamlined work processes in several units of two state agencies.

Please describe your ability to be impartial.

Have lived and owned property in 78744, 78751, and 78704. Volunteer in 44, 04 and others. All areas deserve representation.

Seen Austin grow from 70,000 to 1.8M and never wanted to build a fence to keep out newcomers. Appreciate our vibrant, growing community that makes an effort to preserve its natural beauty and many heritages.

Please describe your appreciation for the City of Austin's diverse demographics and geography.

Seen Austin change from a farming community with the University of Texas and State/County/City government as the only industries to a city with many large employers and a growing number of employment centers.

Seen 78744 change from fairly even mix to predominantly Hispanic. Live in a predominantly Anglo area. Watched 78702 replace low-income minorities with young, upwardly mobile folks. Observed a high number of Asian-heritage folks in The Domain area. Have worked/attended school and volunteered with Blacks/African-Americans, Hispanic and Asian-heritage folks. Austin is a microcosm of our planet. Fortunately, our mores and ethos dictate that we live in harmony and work together to build a better life for us all.

Please provide any other information you wish to be considered during the selection of the most qualified applicants for the Commission.

Austin native and lifelong resident who has seen many changes in Austin. Recognize that changes will continue and must be incorporated into future plans.

Have been in government management positions and activities involving dealing with the public.

Retired from State government in 1999.
